

Jhankaar 2009

The 2009 edition of the student magazine Jhankaar was released with great pride. The magazine is a sole effort of the students. The students are responsible for collecting and selecting the content and design of the magazine. The objective of the magazine is to help the students learn and practice the art of reporting, writing, editing and designing.