

The Wall Magazine

The Wall Magazine has been MBICEM's integral part for a long time. This time students of second year took the initiative and brought the wall magazine. The wall magazine not only showcases the creative writing skills of the students but the designing ability of the students as well. The first year students also contributed their bit to the student activity board throughout the semester.